NÉE RUE ROYALE À PARIS, DEVENUE SOUVERAINE À TRAVERS LE MONDE

MAISON LADURÉE.
160 YEARS
OF EXPERTISE.

Born in Rue Royale, now reigning supreme over all things delicious

The story began in 1862 when Louis-Ernest Ladurée opened his bakery at number 16 Rue Royale, Paris. Since then, Ladurée has never stopped reinventing itself. The originator of the macaron, the pioneer of tea rooms, unequalled in the art of reinterpreting its classics and forging links with fashion and the zeitgeist, Ladurée tells the story of Paris and the Parisian spirit. To savour one of our creations is to awaken the senses as well as the mind. Ladurée showcases fine French patisserie, with taste and daring.

"The ultimate
maison à la française.
An icon of French high patisserie."

Our pastry chef

The values of Maison Ladurée remain intact and alive in the hearts of our teams. From using raw materials of exceptional quality and local suppliers whenever possible to our respect for seasonal produce and the expertise of the patisserie specialists, we are proud of our extremely high standards at every moment, and our ambition to marry tradition with creativity.

Creative patisserie chef Julien Alvarez gives free rein to every fantasy. He draws on the legacy and DNA of Maison Ladurée and incorporates his bold vision too.
